This makes a great brunch or lazy dinner. The combination of soy sauce and butter on rice is severely underrated.

Ingredients

- 1 tbsp (small cube) butter
- 2 eggs

To serve:

- Steamed rice
- 1 pat butter (about one teaspoon)
- 1 tsp soy sauce
- Chilli oil
- Sliced spring onion and toasted sesame seeds

Method

1. In a small frypan over medium heat melt the butter and crack in two eggs, season with a pinch of salt. Using a spatula quickly and continuously mix the eggs as they cook to form a small curd. Once they look like they're almost cooked, turn the heat off. They'll keep cooking in the residual heat.
2. To serve, place steamed rice in a bowl, top with butter, soy sauce, and eggs. Drizzle with chilli oil, spring onion and sesame seeds.
